

Session VI: Measuring the Impact of Prevention Strategies

Discussion questions:

1. Given the current portfolio of available potential prevention tools and methods, which ones show most promise for reducing human illness and are thereby the best candidates for evaluation in community trials?
2. Which of these interventions are most likely to be accepted and utilized in at-risk populations?
3. Which of these provide the best co-benefit value as a part of an IPM strategy?